TITLE 18 U.S.C.A. 3583 (e)(1)

COMES NOW, Jose M. Anduce-Ocasio, the Petitioner, pro-se, respectfully to this Honorable Court, in ex-parte with this Motion for Modification of Supervised Release pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C.A. 3583 (e)(1).

The petitioner avers that since his release, he has maintained a stable home environment, currently living with his wife and one (1) child, and has been gainfully employed since his release as a dock worker and jewelry maker in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Since his release the petitioner has not had any other incidents with the law and has been in full compliance with the terms and conditions of his supervision, and has become an accepted, responsible and productive member of society.

The exemplary representation of petitioner's rehabilitation at home, work, the community and responsibilities with his supervised release, the public interest is best served by terminating the term imposed for supervised release, which will allow the U.S. Probation Office to invest their resources on those who are in need of supervision.
